

BUILDING A BETTER FUTURE FOR CALDERDALE

Join us to consider how we can build back better, without it costing the earth

SATURDAY 6 FEBRUARY • 11.30AM TO 3PM • ONLINE

SESSION 1 JOBS FOR OUR FUTURE

11.30am – 12.30pm

Co-host: Calderdale Trades Council

The Green New Deal and what it means for the UK
Danni Pafford, GND UK

The Importance of Trade Unions in a Green Economy
Sarah Woolley, General Secretary,
Bakers, Food and Allied Workers' Union

Retrofitting: warm homes and more jobs
Geoff Cox, South Yorkshire GND

Training for green livelihoods
Julie Thorpe, Climate Faculty, Tod
Community College

Grab your lunch but don't miss...

Ian Humphreys, local poet nominated for the Portico Prize and Fellow of The Complete Works

Terry Logan, singer songwriter based in Hebden Bridge

SESSION 2 CREATING CHANGE

1.15pm – 2.35pm

Co-host: Incredible Edible Todmorden

The Green New Deal in Calderdale
Hazel Draper

Growing change
Mary Clear, Chair, Incredible Edible
Todmorden

Rethinking the food system
Martyna Krol, Calder Veg Collective

Shopping sustainably
Natalie Denby, Just Gaia in the Piece Hall

Inside recycling: what's the truth?
Scott Hutchinson, British Recycled Plastics

Fixing Fast Fashion
Jean Tallis, WI Climate Ambassador

Singing us out...

Isaac Hughes-Dennis is a politi-folk punk comedy musician, intent on taking down capitalism one satirical ditty at a time

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION

www.facebook.com/calderdalegnd

Email: calderdalegnd@gmail.com